

Paul Hawken

Blessed Unrest in a Changing Climate

...working toward a just, sustainable and fulfilling future

6.15 - 8.30pm Friday October 21st

Peninsula Community Theatre
Cnr Nepean Hwy & Wilsons Road, Mornington

Share an evening with Paul Hawken, an environmentalist, entrepreneur, journalist, and author. From the age of 20 Paul has dedicated his life to sustainability and changing the relationship between business and the environment.

His practice has included starting and running ecological businesses, writing and teaching about the impact of commerce on living systems, and consulting with governments and corporations on economic development, industrial ecology and environmental policy.

Paul is a best-selling author of six books, including Blessed Unrest and Natural Capitalism, as well as dozens of articles and other papers concerning the responsibility of business to the natural environment and our social and ethical obligations to others around the world.

FREE COMMUNITY EVENT

Please book by Mon 17th: Emma Glenn - Ph 5950 1685 or spcd.admin@mornpen.vic.gov.au
Supported by the MPSC Health & Wellbeing Committee

<http://www.paulhawken.com>

